

Work Integrated Learning: A distributed approach to leadership

Visit acen.edu.au/WILleadership to find out more

Shaping the vision

- a. Plan, articulate, influence and advocate strategy
- b. Foster WIL culture to achieve equity and quality WIL outcomes
- c. Enable change and innovation to respond to emergent trends and wider contexts

Creating and sustaining WIL relationships

- a. Identify and engage with diverse WIL stakeholder networks
- b. Collaborate within, across and outside the organisation
- c. Nurture relationships to strengthen WIL culture

Fostering WIL engagement, expertise and student learning

- a. Build WIL pedagogy, curriculum and expertise
- b. Cultivate innovative approaches and quality experiences in WIL
- c. Promote WIL scholarship, research and practice

Communicating and influencing WIL

- a. Develop shared understandings about WIL
- b. Build sustainable WIL practice through the development of networks and communities of practice
- c. Broker and advocate for meaningful WIL outcomes

Driving organisational and joint industry/university outcomes

- a. Identify and manage common challenges and risks
- b. Promote shared benefits
- c. Build, cultivate and maintain capacity and equitable outcomes

Griffith University
Central Queensland University
Deakin University
RMIT University
University of Western Sydney
Victoria University

Funded by the Australian Government
Office for Learning and Teaching.
Project Reference: LE11-2084 (2011)

acen.edu.au/WIL/leadership